I was very sad to read about Paul's death. I worked with Paul in the late 70s in Los Angeles. We drove together to the office every day and Paul always made the long commute in LA traffic both intellectually stimulating and highly entertaining. He was a very special person...my sympathy to his family and friends. Mary Ann Maxwell, Portland Oregon

I met Paul over 32 years ago when we were both at Peat Marwick Consulting in Vancouver and we have been personal friends and colleagues ever since. He was instrumental in introducing me to the world of IT consulting in those early days and I learned from the best. We discovered we shared the same birthday Exactly - same year! early on and that became the basis of many annual greetings no matter where we were in the world. We shared the wild world of each raising two daughters! Paul was the brightest individual I have ever met, brilliant to talk with and I will miss him. Linda and I send our best to Diane, her family and Kristen and Sonja and will be saying a quiet prayer for Paul from Vancouver.

To One in Sorrow by Grace Noll Crowell Let me come in where you are weeping, friend, And let me take your hand. I, who have known a sorrow such as yours, Can understand. Let me come in - I would be very still Beside you in your grief; I would not bid you cease your weeping, friend, Tears can bring relief. Let me come in - I would only breathe a prayer, And hold your hand, For I have known a sorrow such as yours, And understand. Diane, My heart goes out to you and your family. I hope, in time, all the good memories your share with Paul will comfort you.
